The National Occupational Information Coordinating Committee (NOICC) and the State Occupational Information Coordinating Committees (SOICC) were established by the Vocational Education Amendments of 1976. NOICC provides funds, on an annual basis, to State Occupational on an annual basis, to State Occupational to improve coordination and communication among administrator and planners of programs authorized by the Act and by the Job Training Partnership Act, employment security agency administrators, research personnel and personnel of employment and training planning and administering agencies to develop and implement an occupational information system to meet the common occupational information needs of vocational education programs and employment and training programs at the national, state and local levels.

Subsequent legislation reinforced and expanded the primary mission and objectives of the National and State committees, including the Career Education Incentive Act of 1977; Youth Employment and Demonstration Projects Act of 1977; Comprehensive Employment and Training Act Amendments of 1978; Job Training Partnership Act of 1982; Job Training Reform Amendments of 1992; Carl D. Perkins Vocational Education Act of 1984; and Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Applied Technology Education Act Amendments of 1990. The Carl D. Perkins Act Amendment of 1998 eliminated authorizing language for the NOICC/SOICC Network and transferred NOICC's career development functions to the U.S. Department of Education.

Funding for the NOICC will expire on June 30, 2000 and the organization is scheduled to close on June 30, 2000.
